Daniel I. Block

Dr. Block is the Gunther H. Knoedler Professor Emeritus of Old Testament at Wheaton College in Wheaton, Illinois. He has previously taught at The Southern Baptist Theological Seminary in Louisville, Kentucky (1995–2005), Bethel Theological Seminary, St. Paul, Minnesota (1983–95), and Providence College and Seminary, Otterburne, Manitoba (1973–83). In recent decades he lectured internationally in Moscow and Samara, Russia; Athens, Greece; Copenhagen, Denmark; Machakos, Kenya; Winnipeg, Hamilton and Vancouver, Canada; Medellin, Colombia; Sydney, Brisbane, Perth, and Adelaide, Australia; Cambridge, England; Bologna, Italy; and Qingdao and Hong Kong, China.

Dr. Block's educational achievements include post-doctoral studies, Cambridge, University, UK (2002, 2010); D.Phil. in Semitics and Classical Hebrew, University of Liverpool, England (1982); M.A. in Biblical Studies—Old Testament, Trinity Evangelical Divinity School, Deerfield, Illinois (1973); B.A. in History, University of Saskatchewan, Saskatoon (1969); special studies, Friedrich Alexander University, Erlangen, Germany (1968–69); B.Ed., University of Saskatchewan, Saskatoon (1968); Diploma in Biblical Studies, Bethany Bible College, Hepburn, Saskatchewan (1965).

Dr. Block is the author of more than 120 scholarly essays and numerous popular articles on biblical texts and subjects. He has published major commentaries on the book of Ezekiel (2 vols. 1997, Eerdmans, 1998), Judges and Ruth (Broadman & Holman, 1999), Deuteronomy (Zondervan, 2012), as well as several other volumes: The Gods of the Nations: A Study in Ancient Near Eastern National Theology (2nd ed., 2000; reprinted 2013)); two special volumes on Deuteronomy, The Gospel according to Moses: Theological and Ethical Reflections on the Book of Deuteronomy (Cascade, 2012), and How I Love Your Torah, O Lord! Studies in the Book of Deuteronomy (Cascade, 2011), and two special volumes on Ezekiel, By the River Chebar: Historical, Literary, and Theological Studies in Ezekiel (Cascade, 2013), and Beyond the River Chebar: Studies in Kingship and Eschatology in the Book of Ezekiel (Cascade, 2013). His most recent publications include For the Glory of God: Recovering a Biblical Theology of Worship (Baker, 2014); Ruth: The King is Coming (Zondervan, 2015); Obadiah: The Kingship belongs to YHWH, (Zondervan, 2017; rev. ed.); and The Triumph of Grace: Literary and Theological Studies in Deuteronomy and Deuteronomistic Themes (Cascade, 2017). Dr. Block also had a major role in the production of The New Living Translation of the Bible. He is an active member of the Evangelical Theological Society and the Society of Biblical Literature, and served as President of the Institute of Biblical Research for five years.

Dr. Block was nurtured in the faith in Mennonite Brethren churches in Canada. He was ordained to the ministry by the Baptist General Conference, and has served as Interim Preaching Pastor of numerous churches—Baptist General Conference, Evangelical Covenant, Evangelical Free, Independent, Southern Baptist, etc. He lectures and preaches frequently at Bible conferences and spiritual retreats, often focusing either on preaching from the Old Testament or recovering a biblical theology of worship for the church. But his passion for the Kingdom of God is also reflected in his commitment to the local church. He and his wife Ellen enjoy the worship and fellowship of College Church in Wheaton, where Dr. Block currently teaches an adult Sunday class on “The Gospel According to Moses: Deuteronomy.”

Dr. Block and Ellen, his wife of fifty-one years, are both native to Saskatchewan, Canada. They have two adult children, a daughter Jonelle (married to Douglas Yates), and a son Jason (married to Carolyn Ratzlaff), and six grandchildren.
