Dr. Frank Thielman joined the Beeson Divinity School faculty in 1989. He teaches Greek Exegesis. His teaching concentrates primarily in the Pauline epistles. His books include a commentary on Romans, due to appear in August, the NIV Application Commentary on Philippians, the Baker Exegetical Commentary on Ephesians, and several books on the relationship between the New Testament and the Mosaic law (Paul and the Law: A Contextual Approach, From Plight to Solution: A Jewish Framework for Understanding Paul's View of the Law in Galatians and Romans, The Law and the New Testament: The Question of Continuity), and Theology of the New Testament: A Canonical and Synthetic Approach.

He is a member of the Studiorum Novi Testamenti Societas (SNTS), the Society of Biblical Literature, the Evangelical Theological Society, the Institute for Biblical Research, and the Catholic Biblical Association. He is also an ordained Presbyterian (PCA) minister. He and his wife, Abby, have three adult children. They are active in their local Presbyterian church where Frank leads a Bible study, teaches Sunday School, and occasionally preaches.
