George H. Guthrie, PhD

Dr. George Guthrie serves as the Benjamin W. Perry Professor of Bible at Union University in Jackson, TN.

A respected New Testament scholar and a deeply committed churchman, he is the author of numerous articles and eleven books, including The Structure of Hebrews: A Text-linguistic Analysis in Supplements to Novum Testamentum (E. J. Brill, 1994), the NIV Application Commentary: Hebrews (Zondervan, 1998), and the forthcoming 2 Corinthians in the Baker Exegetical Commentary series. As the architect of the Read the Bible for Life biblical literacy initiative, he has written or edited four tools, including, Read the Bible for Life: Your Guide to Understanding & Living God's Word, Reader's Guide to the Bible, and Reading God's Story: A Chronological Daily Bible.

Dr. Guthrie has participated in translation projects, such as the revision of The New Living Translation, and has served as a consultant on the Holman Christian Standard Bible, the New Century Version, and the English Standard Version. At Union University he led in the establishment of, and serves as Senior Fellow in, the Ryan Center for Biblical Studies, which is committed to promoting sound Bible reading, study, and interpretation at the grassroots level of the church.

Dr. Guthrie and his family attend Northbrook Church, which he and his wife helped plant and where he served as co-pastor for ten years. Dr. Guthrie holds both the Ph.D. and the M.Div. degrees from Southwestern Baptist Theological Seminary and a Th.M. from Trinity Evangelical Divinity School. He, his wife Pat, and their two children, Joshua and Anna, live near Jackson, TN.
